Data Protection

We need to comply with our obligations under the General Data Protection Regulations 2018. As a member of South Cliff Bowling Club we record certain information about you. This includes your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address and any medical conditions that you wish us to be aware of. This information will be passed onto other members of the club that need access to it in order to carry out their duties. This includes team captains and committee members. The only information held on computer is your e-mail address and telephone number. We keep a record of mailings we send you. Our mailing list is our most useful way of keeping in touch with you and letting you know about forthcoming matches and fundraising events. We do not sell or rent the information about you nor disclose it to third parties. If you have any objection to your details remaining on our database we will of course remove them. Please let us know if you are aware of any inaccuracies in the data we hold about you or if you wish your name to be removed. If you have concerns about how we use your data then you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office.

To ensure we are complying with the regulations, we need permission to use this information. Could you complete the questions below and sign the form to give approval.
